

⇒ Comparatives & superlatives

1. This cake is tiny fraction smaller than that one.
2. Her sassy personality is more fun than her sister.
3. The robot looks more humanoid than the old one.
4. My Jev dropped faster than yours when I saw results.
5. Today's traffic bottleneck was the worst I have ever seen.

=> Model Verbs for request & permission

1. Can I see that robot again?

2. Could you help me to fix this program?

3. May I take your photo?

4. Might we repatriate these items to their country soon?

5. Should I tell her that her sassy personality makes everyone laugh?

=> Model verbs for Obligation & prohibition

1. We must stop this downward spiral situation before it gets worse.

2. You have to solve the bottleneck in time.

3. You must not touch Admin's Computer.

4. We don't have to repatriate every object right now.

5. The humanoid robot must be expressive to look real.